The Presbytery is a key council of the Uniting Church in Australia. Congregations send their Ministers and representatives to this council. Just as your church council has relational oversight of your congregation, the Port Phillip East Presbytery has relational oversight of 78 congregations. The relational oversight the presbytery seeks to offer, has your minister and representative as part of it. Presbytery is not a central office nor is it part of an hierarchy. As a part of a series of interrelated councils we have specific responsibilities such as proposing candidates for ministry and ordaining them. Other responsibilities are the pastoral oversight and discipline of ministers, and congregations as well as mission strategy and management of regional resources. In order to do these required tasks we need representatives who are able and willing to do more than attend a meeting once a month. Presbytery representatives are expected to be part of committees or task groups as well as participate in deliberations of the presbytery. Congregations which do not have representatives miss out on participating in critical and exciting decisions. Congregations need to support their minister in the fulfilment of their induction vows to participate in the wider work of the church. Your voice needs to be heard, your contribution to the wider work of the church is crucial. Get active!

Ensure you have an active participating Representative and that your Minister is part of this Council. John Hurst

Jan Parsons still has need of SMALL jars for jam. Preferably old 'Masterfood' ones or second-size vegemite jars. Please leave at the Office or with Jan.

FUND RAISING FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS

Churches in the Outer Eastern network have been offered an opportunity to raise funds for asylum seekers, by manning The Lion's Den Opportunity Shop in Blackburn for the week commencing October 11. We need to provide staff for 3 hour shifts, Monday to Friday 10.00 am-1.00 pm and 1.00 pm-4.00 pm, and Saturday 9.00 am-12 noon. We would be supervised by the manager. There is a desperate need for volunteers and anyone willing to give up 3 hours for this cause would be mightily appreciated!

Contact Robin Pope 9561 7021 or popesr@aapt.net.au if you are able to help.

UCAF/ST LEONARDS FASHION PARADE

An invitation has been received from St. Leonard's Friendship Club for their Fashion Parade on Monday October 25th, 12 noon. Tickets $15. We have been allotted 9 tickets and their Secretary needs to know how many and be paid by October 4th.

Contact Ann Wardell 98846814 if you would like a ticket

The Oxford Dictionary tells us that a HUB is the centre point around which all else revolves. In your imagination then think of our HUB as a community space and the spokes as people linking the HUB to the edges of our community where the rim of our imaginary wheel touches the world around us. Our worship indeed a HUB with many people coming and going each day of the week – ‘spokes’ messages between the centre and the work and of Glen Waverley that Though people are always welcome in the centre

- remember our vision: meet_god@anytime.with.us. There are special times on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 10.00 am and 2.00 pm when you will find a cluster of ‘spokes’ in the foyer drinking coffee, playing with small children on the floor mat, and ‘spoking’ to stayers and passers-by. Mothers bring toddlers to playgroups and mini-maestros, ‘grumpy old men’ come to Probus meetings, sometimes shoppers come in to see what’s going on and stay to talk, and some others unburden themselves and find a listening ear.

Why don’t you take a moment next week to call in to the HUB and share your news and views? If you would like to be a regular ‘spoke in the wheel’, then talk to Judith Greenwood.

INCLUSIVE COMMUNITY REPORT.

The Inclusive Community Committee will meet again on Friday 8th October at 10am, in the outer vestry. At our September meeting, we spent quite a long time discussing our “Inclusive Community” hopes and dreams for 2011 and these thoughts and plans have been passed onto John Hurst. Please remember that you are most welcome to attend our meetings or give us any suggestions.

Our first coffee morning was held at Café Moretti on 15th September. Eleven people attended and enjoyed getting to know people who attend other services. We will hold two more coffee mornings in Term 4 on 13 October (this is the 2nd Wednesday) and 17 November. (3rd Wednesday). We would like to see more people at our next coffee morning. Please let Wendy (in the office) know by 3pm on Monday 11th November, if you plan to attend, so that we can notify Moretti’s and they have time to set up tables for us. We will meet inside the church foyer at 10.25am and walk across to the restaurant together. Some people have said that Wednesdays don’t suit them so we will discuss other possibilities at our meeting on 8th October.

Our next Munch with a Bunch lunch will be held at the Mulgrave Country Club on Sunday 31st October at 12.30pm. Invitations will be sent out shortly.

Green F.I.S.H. (our new F.I.S.H. group) met last Sunday the 26th September. Members thought about activities for 2011 and planned the next meeting for sometime in November. We have invited others to attend so hopefully this group will grow.
