Fresh Expressions and the new 9.30 am worship in 2011 Information Evening

Alanee has just returned from a study tour in the UK visiting groups who are introducing 'Fresh Expressions' into their worship. She will be sharing her insights with the Elders and Church Council at the Elders Meeting at 8.00 pm Wednesday 13 October. Interested members of the congregation are also warmly invited to come to this meeting to hear what Alanee has to say.

The Presbytery is a key council of the Uniting Church in Australia. Congregations send their Ministers and representatives to this council. Just as your Church Council has relational oversight of your congregation, the Port Phillip East Presbytery has relational oversight of 78 congregations. The relational oversight the presbytery seeks to offer, has your minister and representative as part of it. Presbytery is not a central office nor is it part of an hierarchy. As a part of a series of interrelated councils we have specific responsibilities such as proposing candidates for ministry and ordaining them. Other responsibilities are the pastoral oversight and discipline of ministers, and congregations as well as mission strategy and management of regional resources. In order to do these required tasks we need representatives who are able and willing to do more than attend a meeting once a month. Presbytery representatives are expected to be part of committees or task groups as well as participate in deliberations of the presbytery. Congregations which do not have representatives miss out on participating in critical and exciting decisions. Congregations need to support their minister in the fulfilment of their induction vows to participate in the wider work of the church. Your voice needs to be heard, your contribution to the wider work of the church is crucial. Get active!

Ensure you have an active participating Representative and that your Minister is part of this Council. John Hurst

COMMUNITY HUB

The Oxford Dictionary tells us that a HUB is the centre point around which all else revolves. In your imagination then think of our HUB as a community space and the spokes as people linking the HUB to the edges where the imaginary world worship HUB with coming and the week – messages place and of our community rim of our wheel touches the around us. Our centre is indeed a many people going each day of 'spokes' carrying between the Jesus the work and leisure world of Glen Waverley that surrounds us. Though people are always welcome in the centre – remember our vision:

meet.god@anytime.with.us, there are special times on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 10.00 am and 2.00 pm when you will find a cluster of 'spokes' in the Foyer drinking coffee, playing with small children on the floor mat, and 'spoking' to stayers and passers-by. Mothers bring toddlers to Playgroups and Mini-Maestros, 'grumpy old men' come to Probus meetings, sometimes shoppers come in to see what's going on and stay to talk, and some others unburden themselves and find a listening ear.

Why don't you take a moment next week to call in to the HUB and share your news and views? If you would like to be as regular 'spoke in the wheel', then talk to Judith Greenwood.

INCLUSIVE COMMUNITY REPORT.

The Inclusive Community Committee met again on Friday 8 October at 3.00 pm in the outer vestry. At our September meeting, we spent quite a long time discussing our "Inclusive Community" hopes and dreams for 2011 and these thoughts and plans have been passed onto John Hurst. Please remember that you are most welcome to attend our meetings or give us any suggestions.

Our first coffee morning was held at Café Moretti on 15 September. Eleven people attended and enjoyed getting to know people who attend other services. We will hold two more coffee mornings in Term 4 on 13 October (this is the 2nd Wednesday) and 17 November. (3rd Wednesday). We would like to see more people at our next coffee morning. Please let Wendy (in the office) know by 3.00 pm on Monday 11 November, if you plan to attend, so that we can notify Moretti's and they have time to set up tables for us. We will meet inside the church foyer at 10.25 am and walk across to the restaurant together. Some people have said that Wednesdays don't suit them so we discussed other possibilities at our meeting on 8 October.

Our next Munch with a Bunch lunch will be held at the Mulgrave Country Club on Sunday 31 October at 12.30 pm. Invitations will be sent out shortly.

Green F.I.S.H. (our new F.I.S.H. group) met last Sunday the 26 September. Members thought about activities for 2011 and planned the next meeting for sometime in November. We have invited others to attend so hopefully this group will grow.
