Charlton: Email from Pastor John Russell in Donald to Lyn McDonald at GWUC

The initiatives that Dennis is doing could not be done without your generous support. Margaret and I have spoken to many people in the Donald/Charlton districts and they are so overcome with the support of the Uniting Churches who have supported them in all sorts of ways. One dear old couple said "you have given them hope when all seemed lost" I think many people would be saying the same. Blessings to you all.

CRAFT, COLLECTIONS, COFFEE & CAKE

This event was held on 18 & 9 June and lots of people came along to see the work of so many talented people from within our church family, and others from our wider church family, and to enjoy delicious cake and coffee.

There are SO MANY people to thank:-

- * Jacob Davey & Meagan Lowe for providing beautiful music all weekend,
- * all those who so generously loaned their treasures for display,
- * the ladies in the kitchen who cheerfully served the cakes and coffee, especially Joanne Boldiston who was there all day Saturday and Sunday and Nicole Boyer who worked all day Saturday,
- * everyone who baked the cakes and slices,
- * all those who acted as hostesses/floor walkers in the hall,
- * Jacqui King and her helpers on the Trading Table,
- * Arthur Davey, Ross Lennon, Rob McDougall, Andrew Hosking, David Fraser, Michael Boldiston and Alan Lemke who 'slept'!!! overnight in the building to 'keep an eye' on all the treasures,
- * those who arrived on Friday morning to help set up trestles, screens, etc, and then returned on Sunday afternoon to put it all away, and those who helped with the setting up of the display,
- * Greg, for his help with the sound and lights, and for his 'little car',
- * Rosemary for her constant support [and help in the kitchen],
- * Alanee for decorating the fellowship area with lovely paper flowers,
- * those who stayed and 'demonstrated' their crafts,
- * Barbara Thompson and Lynne Boyer for organising the Sunday lunch,
- * EVERYONE WHO CAME ALONG AND SUPPORTED THE EVENT,
- * and, Alan and Ray who worked so hard with loading, moving, unloading, and general running around – and with putting up with various 'take-away' meals for a few days!

We were pleased with the community feel this event created within our church family, and offer our appreciation to all for everything that was done to help us. Please accept our sincere and grateful thanks.

Margaret Lemke and Faye Wagon

PS: there were 782 buttons in the jar

PPS: approx $3500 was raised for church funds.
