Ride to Conquer Cancer: Supporting The Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre

The ride to conquer cancer is a cycling event taking place in October that will see brave cyclists travel over 200km in just two days. Andrew Wheatland and his friends are participating in the ride with the goal of raising $16,200 for charity. Money raised benefits the Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre, so that they may continue to provide the highest level of care, and develop new treatments for cancer sufferers.

To show your support for Andrew's team, please visit the team website: www.lycralovinteam.org.au All donations are tax deductible.
