Habitat for Humanity

On Saturday 22 June our contingent of the Habitat for Humanity team, from GWUC travelled to Yea. Their mission was to continue the final preparations for the handover of two more houses to the families of victims involved in the Victorian bush fires. The weather was drier than expected and some extensive interior and exterior painting work was completed. A BBQ lunch was enjoyed at the site. A concerted effort was required by all who attended and a grateful well done was extended to the party involved on the day by Mr Brian Finch from Habitat for Humanity,

The next Brush with Kindness projects will be provided on Saturday 27 July 2013. So check out the Facebook and Twitter updates for Habitat for Humanity.

Welfare Request

Welfare Committee is seeking a second hand laptop computer for a secondary school student who attends this Church. If you can assist, would you please contact Dorothy Lockhart on 9802 8461 or dm.lockhart@bigpond.com

Mini Spring Clean

Property needs your assistance to perform a mini spring clean next Saturday 6 July from 8:30am until 12noon. We will be performing some safety testing, repairing the playground path, cleaning the car park and gutters, replacing light globes and removing cobwebs. We will also be steam cleaning the foyer.

If you think you can assist for one hour, that would be appreciated.

Details from Warren Greenwood 98038373.

Attention Fete Convenors:

Please collect your letter of "Confirmation and Equipment requirements" from the letter rack today.

Many thanks, Yan.

Wedding Invitation - Saturday 20 July.
