Habitat for Humanity - Brush with Kindness

Sunny skies and a hot barbecue were features this month when Habitat for Humanity Brush With Kindness was held at Colbinain. Four travellers from GWUC, on 19 October, joined a small contingent of the Habitat for Humanity team. With log splitters flying and chainsaws abuzzing the team made short work of more than a years supply of firewood for the landholder who is recovering from treatment of three fused vertebrae. In only the one day much of the fallen timber from the property was prepared for firewood. A solid effort was required from all who attended and a sincere "thank you" was extended to all involved by the family.

The next Brush With Kindness project will be held on Saturday 23 November. This work will require the voluntary provision of trailers by GWUC members. So don't miss out. Check out details on the Facebook page for Habitat for Humanity. If you can help on the day please email Andrew at andrewhosking@hotmail.com
