Christmas Gift Tree Opening Soon

This year the "Empty Christmas tree" will accept presents that will go to needy children throughout the Melbourne area. We request that gifts purchased are up to the value of $20. These may be given for children up to the age of 16 and can be delivered to the church to be placed under the tree from 1 to 15 December. The church will then arrange onward delivery. (Gifts are especially requested for children between 13 and 16 years). Please note on the gift the intended age of the recipient.

Photos to help Neil Peters

Our church rolls database can include photographs of members. So far we have only used this for leaders of the congregation on the photoboard in the foyer. With a new minister coming, it is an opportune time to expand this. David Morgan will be available between services this Sunday to take photos of all members who wish to be included. Alternatively, email your head and shoulders photo to david@gwuc.org.au.

For details of the accessibility of the database, see <http://wiki.gwuc.org.au/gwuc/ChurchDatabase>.
