Today's Flowers in the church

Today's flowers are in thanksgiving to God for the 60 years of marriage of Donna and Fred Vanclay, celebrated this weekend.

Arranged by: Alanee Hearnshaw.

Today ...

We rejoice with Donna and Fred Vanclay as they celebrate their 60th Wedding Anniversary.

At our 9.15am service this morning we welcome Stephen Tossel, Jane Wilcock and their families. Their children, Murray and Ewan, will become part of our Church Family through the Sacrament of Baptism. Rev Tom Rose will be assisting in the Baptism.

At our 11am service we welcome those Ecumenical Visitors who are joining with us from other congregations in our community.

Following the 11am service, Club 2014 and our visitors will meet for a light lunch in the hall.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteers wanted to join the rosters for assisting at church services. In particular we need people for the vestry roster for 11am services and the welcoming roster for 8am services. Please speak to Heather at the Office if you are able to assist. Thank you.

NewView Deadline

The next issue of NewView will address the theme of 'tradition'. The closing date for your submissions is Wednesday, June 4. Your reflections, stories, reports and anecdotes are invited, even if they do not directly relate to the theme.

Cherish Exchange Foundation, Nakuru, Kenya - Thank You

Thanks to UCAF for their donation towards a big 6,000 litre water tank. Thank you to those at Glen Waverley Uniting Church and others who donated towards the $10,000 Food Program for a year - the total is looking hopeful. We are still hoping there will be some money towards necessary buildings at the Cherish shamba (farm). Thank you for your support in all ways. Please keep praying for us in this work for God.
