

Glen Waverley Uniting Church

BBQ Forum 2 - Mohammed Isah

Sunday 29 June saw nearly 40 Glen Waverley Uniting Church members gather to enjoy the second BBQ Forum. Our guest speaker, Mr Mohammed Isah from Lentara, presented a most informative and challenging speech about the work of Lentara Uniting Care and his own personal journey through the vexing issue of Asylum Seekers in this country.

A huge thank you goes to all who were involved for giving so generously of their time and talents. During the luncheon Mohammed confirmed for himself that GWUC is a branch of the Uniting Church where he can continue to receive both an open hearing and support for the church's programmes.

For those wishing to continue their support for this programme, a specific request has been made, for us to continue to provide sewing machines (any brand), garden tools and household cleaning products as well as personal hygiene products (male and female).

Today's Flowers in the church

Arranged by: Joyce Ennor.

Today

During our worship services today we will be acknowledging the important ministry of our CRE teachers.

Here at Glen Waverley we have 8 dedicated CRE instructors, who volunteer weekly in a number of schools.

We encourage you to pray for our instructors, Judith Greenwood, Laurel Muir, Jill Norquay, Pam Bunney, Noreen Rodgers, Lynn Peters Jan Clear

Next Week - Annual Leave

Rev Neil Peters is taking Annual Leave from 7 to 14 July.

Sunday 20 July

On Sunday 20 July we will have the pleasure of hearing from David and Lena Reichardt who are serving with Uniting World in North India. They will speak at 9.15 and 11 am services and they have a great story to share. Lena is a volunteer as a Medical Officer at Lady Willingdon Hospital with a particular focus on paediatric and obstetric care. Lena will also assist with community health outreach clinics run by the hospital. David is serving alongside local church workers in establishing a much-needed lay education program. This program will provide training for local people in various aspects of theology, ecology, and environmental crisis.

Outreach will host a light lunch, to encourage people to talk with David and Lena and learn more of what they are doing. All welcome, coin donation.

An Invitation to get involved planning 9.15am Worship

Commencing in August Neil for the 3rd Sunday and Alanee for the 4th Sunday of the month would like to work with a group of people to plan and participate in worship at the 9.15am service. Depending on the availability of group members, we would meet early in the month for the service later in the month. Both Neil and Alanee are keen to do this and they look forward to hearing from volunteers by emailing or calling either of them.
