Today's Flowers in the church

Arranged by: Gael O'Brien.

Many Thanks!

Rebecca, Peter and Oliver Cornall would like to thank everyone for their warm wishes and prayers on the new arrival of their daughter Charlotte May.

Today

At our 9.15am and 11am services today Lyn and Pam McDonald will share with us about their recent trip to Kenya.

At the 7pm service this week Jeff Wilde will be sharing about Christmas Bowl. Anyone who is interested in Act for Peace and the Christmas Bowl initiative are very welcome to join us.

This weekend Neil is chairing the annual Selection Conference for applicants to the ordained ministry. Please pray for the panel and the applicants as they test their sense of call.

Next Week

Next Sunday at 11am we will be having the annual two-way live broadcast with Beeac. Neil, Free Spirit and technical support will be at Beeac and Alison will lead parts of the service from Glen Waverley. In the afternoon Free Spirit are putting on a concert in Colac to raise money for school chaplaincy.

There will be no 7pm service next week (14 September) as the youth and young adults are going off to join others at Wesley Uniting Church (Lonsdale Street) for 'Transformations' - a new Youth and Young Adult initiative.

In Depth Bible Study

An in depth study of John's gospel, led by Ross Mackinnon, is anticipated commencing in either late September or early October. The day and time will be negotiated with those interested. Please express interest to Heather in the Office.
